

Q. What are the regulations for obtaining an intermediate license?

A. INTERMEDIATE LICENSE 16 YEARS OLD

After completing the learners license/permit stage and upon reaching at least sixteen years of age, a minor may apply for a Class "E" Intermediate License. This license must be maintained for a minimum of one year from the date of issuance or until the driver has reached the age of seventeen.

To have the Intermediate license issued, please take your Learner's Permit, certified birth certificate, and proof of insurance for the automobile to a local Office of Motor Vehicles. Your parent or legal guardian must accompany you with picture I.D and provide a written statement attesting that you have a minimum of fifty (50) hours of behind the wheel driving experience with a licensed parent, guardian, or adult at least twenty-one (21) or older. At least fifteen (15) of these hours must be night time driving. In case of joint custody, only domiciliary parent may sign. If a minor is accompanied by a mother who has since re-married, the mother must present documentation to show the connection in the names, such as a certified copy of her divorce decree and new marriage license. The vehicle must have a current safety inspection sticker, current license plate validation sticker, and current certificate of registration. You will be required to take and pass the driving skills and vision tests. Fee: $16.00 (Fees may vary at the local office) CASH

NOTE: Driving skills tests are NOT given between 11:00 AM and 1:00 PM. We suggest you arrive no later than 3:00 PM. Skills test are NOT given during inclement weather.

You have the option of going to a state certified Third Party Tester to be administered a driving skills test. They can charge up to $30.00 for the driving skills test.

Third Party Tester list. You must report to the Third Party Tester with Test History Form or a valid learner's permit issued by the Office of Motor Vehicles. A Third Party Tester can lease a vehicle to you to take the driving skills test. They also can administer the test in inclement weather and at your convenience, usually anytime of the day or night.

This license allows the minor to drive alone or with other passengers in the vehicle, but restricts him from driving between the hours of 11:00 p.m. to 5:00 AM unless he is accompanied by a licensed parent, guardian, or adult at least twenty-one or older. After the one year period or once the driver reaches age seventeen, the minor may qualify for a permanent Class "E" license.
